

Tax Assessment Exemption Forms Ready for Elderly

Available at Offices
Of Twp. Assessors;
To be Filed by Mar. 31

Forms necessary to claiming a 100 percent exemption on real property owned by persons 65 or over will be distributed, notarized and processed by Monday, January 28, at a plan workup meeting Monday, January 28, at Granite City township assessor, announced today.

The new credit for real estate values of property owned by persons 65 or over is allowed under House Bill 1176 approved by the General Assembly last year. The law is one of a number of new laws setting up changes in property valuations.

Barton said decision to handle the new credit by claiming the exemption at focal assessments offices was reached because the assessors believed many elderly persons could not seriously consider the time and expense to make the trip to Edwardsville where they would have to obtain the form from the county clerk's office.

Barton said he also plans to mail the exemption application to persons who are unable to

to his office and who write for the form. His office then would pick up the form at the householder's residence, he said.

Meanwhile, County Treasurer John Maeras announced at Edwardsville that the Board of Review has extended until March 31 the deadline date for filing the exemption applications. The deadline originally had been set for Jan. 31, although the exemption will apply only on the 1970 property valuations extended next year, in which taxes are to be collected. In 1971, Tax bills paid, ne-

Applications Available

Barton said that forms for the exemption are now available at his office and may be filed anytime before the March 31 deadline date. Forms are allowed under a new law to disabled war veterans. However, this law applies only to veterans those disabilities are such that the federal government has been unable to provide a place of special construction or a place of special residence for the veteran. Barton said there are no plans to change the law in City Township.

Action to effect elimination of the houses of furniture and personal property valuations of such family will not be taken until the federal government's Personal Property valuations are not made until April and the federal government declines to enforce these applications.

The assessor noted, however, that it will be necessary for it to be made a part of the regular personal property assessments, but the value of the furniture and personal property will be carried into the Board of Review books. Application forms for the personal property valuations will be handled by the local assessors.

Latin America Trip by Dr. Ottwein for Church

"Beginning Jan. 4, I am making a fast-paced working trip into three Latin American countries... a week each in Ecuador (around Quito), Honduras (the entire north coast) and Mexico (around Guadalajara)," State Senator Merrill Ottwein told the Press-Record yesterday.

"It will be a trip for the United Church Board for World Ministries. I am a member of Eden United Church of Christ in Edwardsville and was elected to the board of directors of the Board for World Ministries this fall at the annual meeting of the board in Allentown, Pa. The trip was roughly planned at that time, timed to fit in between other major responsibilities here at home.

"Purpose of the trip is to look for ways of enhancing the service ministries of the United Church Board for World Ministries. The service division of that board is the fastest growing arm of the church's mission activity, emphasizing self-help community improvement as a ministry, helping in areas of food production, health, etc., the senator related.

"Consultations will be held with other agencies, such as local governmental units, other churches, the University at Quito, the Peace Corps and Heifer Projects, Inc., all having mutual interests in the improvement of the quality of life in under-developed countries.

"A special purpose in relation to public health will be explored at all stations. A recently formed Medical Committee of the United Church Board is attempting to involve the various professional medical people interested in helping, more directly into overseas activities.

"In funding, planning and in actually staffing on a short-term volunteer basis.

"I will be visiting various acquaintances in Honduras. Our entire family spent 1967 living in San Pedro Sula on the north coast of Honduras, where I directed a lay-oriented agricultural and community development self-help project called Diakonia.

"I'm looking forward to seeing these old friends. Unfortunately, my family won't be able to accompany me this time. The children especially are mourning the fact that they can't go to see their friends, and that all of us can't renew a love affair with a beautiful country and a beautiful culture."

Two autos, halted side-by-side for a traffic signal on the dual section of highway at Nameoki and Pontoon roads, Monday, were quickly separated when a third car, operated by Sheila Lewis of 2423 Morrison road, failed to stop and slid between the other two, police reported.

Drivers of the halted vehicles were Robert L. Howard of 7948 Old Alton road and Georgia Schlegel of Box 785A, Rural Route Two. All three cars were traveling south on Nameoki.

Bedfast Vietnam Vet is Home for Holidays

By DONNA HOGAN

A young serviceman home for the holidays has brought more joy to his family and friends, not only because he is at home for the first time in 18 months, but with his bright and optimistic outlook for the future.

Young Jim Holland, 21, who was accidentally wounded in the neck on July 19 in Vietnam, resulting in complete paralysis from the neck down, has made such amazing progress through his own determination and with the help of physical and occupational therapy at the Hines Veterans Hospital, Hines, Ill., that he has been an inspiration to all who visit him.

The young serviceman receives visitors in the family room of his parents home at 2637 Cleveland blvd., which is decorated in a bright holiday theme, from a hospital bed set up for his comfort. He is to return to the hospital on Friday.

Now able to use his right hand and arm, he can raise his arm above his head and has learned to write to some degree. He can move his legs and has feeling in both feet. His left hand and arm are still partially paralyzed although he can feel a touch to the hand.

Therapy at the hospital, to repair and strengthen damaged nerves and muscles, is based on a regular routine, with physical therapy given from 10 a.m. until noon and occupational therapy from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. five days a week, he explained. He is also receiving treatment from a therapist while home on leave to prevent any delay in his progress.

First treated at a hospital in Saigon, Sp/4 Holland was later transferred to Fitzsimmons General Hospital in Denver, Colo., and arrived at Hines, Ill., on Nov. 2.

When a sketch of his future was outlined, with his undaunted spirit, said, "My next goal is to be walking by March, and after I have recovered, I have tentatively planned to continue my education and possibly work in radio. I would especially like to be a sports announcer, since I have always been active and interested in all sports."

Mr. and Mrs. James Holland have taken an apartment near the hospital with hopes that as their son progresses he may be given weekend passes to stay with them and give the young man a change away from the hospital.

Mrs. Holland said every effort is made at the hospital to give the servicemen there a diversified interest other than their regular routine. She told of a woman, who lives near the hospital, who has for the past 23 years visited the veterans twice a week, taking a cart filled with personal items, gifts and a variety of snacks, all at her own expense. She is also arrangements for well known entertainers, who may have an engagement in nearby Chicago, to visit the hospital and entertain the patients.

Sp/4 Holland entered the service on March 29, 1968, and had served as a military policeman with the 552nd M.P. Co. assigned in the Second Field Force. He was wounded on July 19 and was due to return home on Aug. 22.

The serviceman remarked, "I would like very much to thank all the wonderful people who have sent cards and letters to me at the hospital, as I cannot write well enough to correspond with each one, but I certainly appreciate their thoughtfulness."

Quad-Cityans Preparing For Start of New Decade

Quad-Cityans are gearing for tonight's start of a new decade with house parties, watch parties at churches and club celebrations.

Nearly 600 traffic deaths occurred nationwide over the past Christmas holiday weekend, none in the Quad-Cities area.

On Friday, the county court house at Edwardsville will be closed, but local city, county and most business offices here will be open.

Burglars Loot 4 Homes and 2 Business Places

Burglars continued their operations in the Quad-Cities this week, looting four homes, two business places and stealing accessories from two autos.

Items valued at $212 were taken from the home of Mrs. Joyce Todd, 2541 Cent street, who found the bedroom closets, dresser drawers, a cedar chest in the basement and a desk and coffee table drawer had been ransacked when she returned to the house about 9:20 p.m. Monday.

The home had been entered through a rear door, where the storm door was pulled from the door-facing, and the lock had been forced open.

Taken by the thieves were a camera, valued at $100; a black portable radio, valued at $50; a woman's pendant watch, $50; and 25 Kennedy half-dollars.

Thief Loots Camper
Guns and tools valued at $487 were taken from the camper parked in the yard and a house on the rear of the lot at the home of Lewis Windsor, 700 Twenty-eighth street. It was reported to police yesterday.

Missing were a .32 caliber revolver, a .22 caliber rifle, a box of socket wrenches, two sets of wrenches, two electric drills and a saber saw.

A fifth of liquor and three soft drinks were missing from the home of Mrs. Joan Pfeiffer, 3621 Edwards street, when thieves entered the house through a rear window and ransacked each room, the owner told police Monday afternoon.

Vandals upset a table, threw food around the kitchen and stole an 88 watch at the home of James Hicks, 1327 Rhodes street, Tuesday morning. Hicks said his 10-year-old son left the house to go downtown and returned about noon to discover the damage and theft. The doors had been left unlocked.

Downtown Office Burglary
A $400 microscope and $18 worth of six-cent stamps were taken during a lunch-hour burglary yesterday at the offices of the late Dr. Jacob Schermer, 1916a Delmar avenue. The office secretary, Mrs. Helen Dore, said the theft occurred between noon and 1 p.m. while she was gone for lunch. She said the offices were locked, except for the waiting room, and there was no sign of a forced entry.

A box of copper and brass fittings valued at about $100 was stolen from the store room of the Markely Plumbing and Heating Co., Madison police reported Monday. Entry was made through a window which was forced open, officers said.

Wilbert Benson, 2205 Lee avenue, reported at 6:10 a.m. Tuesday that thieves entered his auto, parked inside the garage, and removed a microphone and cord, valued at $75. The theft occurred Monday night, he said.

A car stereo, valued at $115, a stereo tape, worth $5, and an automatic radio, were stolen from an auto parked in his driveway. Terry Case, 1625 Moro avenue, reported to police on Monday.

Charles J. Polach, 26, of 1321 Washington avenue, pleaded guilty to charges of attempting to flee or elude a police officer and driving too fast for conditions during a hearing Monday. He was fined a total of $75 and released. Polach was arrested at 2:15 p.m. Sunday at 15th street and Madison avenue.

Area Digging
equipment in cinderling intersections.

Warfield also said that supplies of salt and cinders have run low, as more than 100 tons were used this week, and attempts are being made to obtain more.

The chief difficulty is manpower, Warfield noted, stating that out of a crew of 25, six men are manning pumps, one is injured, one is hospitalized, one is ill and two or three are on vacation, and one spreader is not in use because of it.

Limited traffic was slowed as most motorists stayed home, but there were some minor accidents (eight fender benders in Granite City last night).

The highway patrol reported that all state highways are passable, but there was heavier snow and drifting in the southern third of the state.

Local MH Board

Letter from Staff
The letter to the local board from the 16 professional staff members follows:

"This is to inform you that the Granite City Mental Health Clinic is actively preparing to close as of Jan. 15, subsequent to the board rendering its resignation as of the same date.

"Each patient is receiving a letter from our medical director, Dr. Robert Hicks, informing them of the reasons for the clinic closing. Staff members are preparing patients by referring them to other appropriate resources.

"The professional staff of this clinic has no intention of working under direct control of the board of the Quad-Cities Center over operation of this clinic. Staff members are seeking other positions and do not plan on employment at this center after Jan. 15.

"If the board has any intention of continuing the clinic, Dr. (Fay) Starr's motion of Dec. 23 to continue to operate as the board of the Quad-Cities Center by submitting emergency budgeting for a period of three months to the State Mental Health Department, we as employees of this clinic must know of this action not later than Dec. 30. Otherwise, there will be no staff to continue operation of this clinic."

The staff has agreed to wait for the local board's decision on Friday, since both the board president, Harold Thomas, and vice-president, John Blinn, are out of town. Dr. Starr, a faculty member at SIU-W, is a member of the local board.

Railroad Values

Terminal Railroad Association, $2,955,986 ($3,180,532).

Railroad property valuations throughout Madison county have declined steadily since 1927 when the total value of the county's rail property stood at $41,757,935. Consistent annual decreases dropped the total to $33,386,921 for the 1962 tax year.

For the 1963 year, however, the state department slashed nearly $12 millions off the total for a 1963 value of $21,624,859. Since that time, annual total railroad valuations have been: 1964 — $19,277,220; 1965 — $17,085,907; 1966 — $17,185,501; 1967 — $16,721,904; 1968 — $16,122,729; and 1969, $16,089,153.

Rotarians Hear Counselor Talk On Race Relations
Stanley Howlett, personnel counselor in the Industrial Relations Division of Granite City Steel Co., spoke on racial issues at the noon luncheon meeting Tuesday of the Granite City Rotary Club at the YMCA.

Mr. Howlett was introduced by club member Richard West and used as his topic, "Where To From Here." He discussed racial tensions, reviewing progress made in past years and spoke of future problems to be solved by both the black and white communities.

An ordained minister, Howlett serves a Baptist Church in St. Louis, with a membership of 1300 persons. As a member of the black community he stated that he is aware of the problems confronting both races in trying to solve difficulties in both housing, education and employment.

He said, "Concern for racial relations is vital to both business and industry. Both races need to be involved to provide more understanding on the black and white communities."

Against violence as a means to solving problems, Howlett gave a quotation, "To live is to adapt to change," and said people must re-evaluate their life to make change worthwhile.

"Changes must be made slowly for a more lasting quality," he added. Progress has been steady and gradual in Granite City resulting in better jobs available.

Granite City Steel Co. has taken leadership in industry by requiring all employees to have at least a high school diploma. He believes this is the right way to help young people.

"This is helping to prevent drop-outs in high school and will pay off in the long run, avoiding poor standards of learning for young people," The speaker said.

Howlett's prediction for 1970 is that law and order must be supported and the black residents must support the police. He believes advances will be made in easing tensions, not by the government as much as by the two races.

Crash on Madison Ave.

Autos driven south on Madison avenue by Sandra Wofford, 2321 Hodges avenue, and Gary O'Riley, 1214 West Pontoon road, were involved in an accident about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday when O'Riley was forced to stop for an auto making a turn.

Auto Hits Signal Light

An auto driven east on East 23rd street by Nancy Smith, 2629 (r) Iowa street, slid on the ice pavement when braked and crashed into a traffic signal standard at the Nameoki road intersection Tuesday afternoon.

Eagle Park Group Seeks Traffic Lights at 203

A citizen's committee, headed by Charles Maples of the Eagle Park Improvement Association, is scheduled to meet today with state highway department officials at the district engineers' office in French Village, to urge installation of traffic signal lights on Route 203 at Harrison avenue. The area is located near the foot of McCannock viaduct's southern approach, south of Madison.

The increased flow of traffic along Route 203, noted particularly since opening of the Poplar Street bridge to St. Louis, is creating a hazard for school buses and private vehicles entering or leaving Eagle Park Acres, according to Maples.

"If we don't get some type of traffic control signals on Route 203 to ease present conditions, one of these days we are going to see a serious accident involving a school bus, and it's only a matter of time before a car coming over the viaduct at a high rate of speed crashes into a slow-moving bus trying to turn from Harrison onto the highway."

Eddie Salmond, association president and a special sheriff's deputy in Eagle Park, said that six or seven accidents have occurred within the past few months in that area. "Conditions are equally dangerous to school children now as previously existed when buses crossed the Tracks at the west end of Eagle Park, the officer said.

He noted that the latter bus route was curtailed by Venice school officials who re-routed buses through the unincorporated community to the east on Route 203. At Route 203, the buses turn north to Third street in Madison and along Third to Madison avenue then south and west on Broadway to the Venice schools.

Salmond said the Harrison Route 203 exit is the only entrance to Eagle Park Acres, with exception of the west road across two sets of unguarded railroad tracks.

Large trucks heading for Laclede Steel Co. also use the Harrison turnoff point on Route 203 to avoid traveling to 20th street in Granite City and south on Madison avenue to the plant, Salmond said. "Anywhere from 25 to 50 heavy trucks go through Eagle Park Acres daily during a 24-hour period," the association official said.

The roadway is in disrepair, with ditches on either side of the Harrison-203 junction, which also causes problems for the school bus drivers trying to turn onto the busy highway, Maples commented.

"We don't know what the state people can do to help us, but we certainly are going to try to secure traffic lights," the delegation head said.

Sentenced to Six Days; Faced 2 Other Charges

Mike Fletcher, 22, who listed an address in the 2100 block of Washington avenue, pleaded guilty Monday to two traffic charges, including use of fictitious plates on a motor vehicle, and was sentenced to six days in the county jail.

A property bond, amounting to $13,500, also was set for Fletcher on two additional charges, involving theft of a motor vehicle and state license plates earlier this month from the Like New Auto Sales Co., Granite City. Chief of Detectives Joseph Kastelic said. Fletcher, reportedly absent without leave from military service, was taken to the Edwardsville jail yesterday.

Truck-Auto Collide

$16 Million Available To Students at SIU

More than $16 million in financial assistance of all types will be distributed to students on Southern Illinois University's Carbondale campus during the 1969-70 school year.

The figures are based on a comprehensive survey compiled by financial aid counselor Charles E. Gray for Frank C. Adams, director of SIU Student Work and Financial Assistance. Gray's report shows that about 17,000 Carbondale campus students will receive benefits in some form.

The survey includes federal and state funds, as well as private donor contributions, part of which come through the SIU Foundation headed by Kenneth R. Miller. Included are figures for the student work program, academic scholarships and awards, tuition and fee grants, loans and other grants, G. I. Bill, graduate student fellowships and assistantships, NCAA athletic scholarships, and other kinds of aid.

The single largest source of financial assistance, in terms of the number of students involved, is the SIU self-help student work program. Students are paid regular salaries ranging from $1.30 to $3 per hour for part-time work on campus. Student salaries at Carbondale for the year are expected to exceed $4.1 million.

The number of students working during any one quarter averages about 4,000 and adds up to about 10,000 for the whole year, due to graduations, transfers, normal personnel turnover, and other factors, Adams said.

GRANITE CITY HOLIDAY TOURNEY. This scene in the GCHS gymnasium shows part of the panorama of fans, wrestlers and fans. An audience of over 1000 was in attendance for the finals late Tuesday afternoon. The Warriors placed sixth among the 15 schools, with Al Bridgeman winning the 123-pound championship.

GCHS 6th in Mat Meet Here, Bridgeman Wins

Warrior Al Bridgeman earned the 123-pound class championship of the Granite City holiday wrestling tournament at the GCHS gym Monday and Tuesday.

Others placing for the Warriors were Bruce Miller with a second place and Lenny Fuchs and Steve Ganz with thirds.

East St. Louis Lincoln captured the team title, led by Heavyweight John Dancy. Dancy championed his weight class and topped the tourney's "most pins" trophy by flattening all five of his opponents. He remains undefeated this season.

The Granite City team was sixth.

Team point totals — Lincoln 48, Bloomington 44, Stephen Decatur 40, Sterling 37, Belleville East 36, Granite City 31, East St. Louis 19, Peoria Richwoods 17, Wood River 14, Jacksonville and Edwardsville 13 each, Champaign Central 7, Bethalto 3, Alton 1 and Mattoon, 0.

Wins on 'Lot of Moves'

Bridgeman wrestled twice in the finals. He left Marc Hummel of Sterling in third place with a 7-2 decision and in the final beat Wood River's Sam Williams 7-4.

Bridgeman explained, "Hum-mel's tough; he's stronger than I am, so I had to outmaneuver him. Williams is the same way; I had to make a lot of moves, because I knew I couldn't overpower him."

After beginning his string of five bout wins with a pin, Bridgeman took his narrowest victory against Belleville East's Mike Henderson.

It was Bridgeman's second bout of the day and he wearily allowed the Maroon an early 2-0 match advantage. Bridgeman says, "I wasn't worried, I thought I could come back, I got three points and won 3-2."

The champ Warrior's other win ended 5-2 during the fourth round.

Miller in Two Draws

Miller tightrope-walked to second place in the 98-pound class. In the first round he grappled to a 2-2 tie. Miller then won by a 4-38 pin and a 9-6 decision. A 3-3 draw with Sylvester Lee of Lincoln put the Lincoln lightweight narrowly into third place.

In the final, Sterling's Vince Lopez won 10-2 over Miller.

Fuchs at 107 pounds won 6-4, 4-2 and 4-2 decisions and then lost 5-0 to the tourney's eventual champ Calvin Jones of East St. Louis. Jones continually employed a "fireman's

Reshuffling of School Athletic Leagues Will Affect GCHS, MHS

The Madison and Granite City high school athletic programs are expected to be affected by conference realignments currently in progress.

With many scheduling commitments already made for the 1970-71 school year, the major reshuffling of leagues which is taking place at present will not be effective until the 1971-72 academic year, spokesmen say.

Wood River is withdrawing from the Southwestern Conference, in which GCHS holds membership.

Applicants to join the league include Belleville East high school; Belleville West is a member, and the newer school has caught up with the established high school in the prowess of its athletic teams.

Midwest Disbanding

The Midwest Conference, in which Madison high school has earned a large number of championship trophies, may cease to exist.

Bethalto, Highland, Triad and Roxana are preparing to depart from the Midwest to form a new conference along with Wood River, O'Fallon, Jerseyville and Mascoutah.

The boards of education of the eight schools named have indicated they approve formation of the new loop. Wood River Supt. Henry Studnicki, chairman of the proposed conference, reports that a constitution has been completed.

January, March Meetings

The league is expected to be given a name at a meeting in early January. Names proposed so far include Mississippi Valley, Great Rivers and Gateway East.

Whether the Southwest Conference will drop from seven to six schools may be considered at a meeting set for March 9 at Belleville West. In the past, proposals to add an eighth school have been rejected on the basis that seven was not an ideal number.

With East Alton-Wood River high school leaving the Southwest, Belleville East and East St. Louis Lincoln are among the schools which may receive consideration as a successor. The vote on such a subject must be unanimous.

Whether Madison might seek to rejoin the Southwestern Conference is unknown.

Enrollment Factor

Enrollment differentials between MHS and such schools as East St. Louis high were cited at the time MHS chose to seek affiliation with smaller schools.

Home Improvement Survey to be Made

Questions on consumer buying and home improvement expectations will be asked by representatives of the Bureau of the Census in this area during January, according to Theodore F. Olson, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Chicago.

The questions are asked four times yearly as part of a nationwide effort to collect information as a guide to Federal agencies and other groups in developing programs based on consumer spending patterns. A sample of residents in this area will be asked if they expect to buy a house, car, or major appliance during the next year and if they have made recent purchases of these items. Homeowners will be asked about home improvements and repairs during the last three months and any planned for the future.

Slowdown, But Continued 'Growth' Seen for 1970

There will be a period of business slowdown in 1970 but overall the year will see economic growth.

This forecast is the consensus of key business leaders from all parts of the state, according to Amos E. Buettell, chairman of the 100-member Economic Development Committee of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

In the most recent survey in the series, taken in October, families in the U. S. indicated a gain in expected expenditures for furniture and appliances and reported no important change in car buying expectations. House buying expectations remained at a low level.

All answers are kept confidential by law, and information obtained will be published only as statistical totals. The Census Bureau representative in this area is Mrs. Mary Lou F. Gallagher.

Carl Mathias, manager of the Illinois Power Co. at Granite City, is among the committee's members upon whose reports and predictions the new year's outlook is based.

In announcing results of the annual poll of committee members, Buettell reported general agreement that the overall economic outlook for the state and nation looks bright, although tempered by the uncertainties of inflation, Vietnam, increased construction and labor costs, high interest rates and tight money.

Shew Healthy Signs
Buettell, president of Crown Industrial Products Co., Hebron, said most of those polled indicated Illinois' economy continues to show healthy signs of vigor contributing to projected economic growth. Major factors cited were the diversity of the Illinois economy, significant industrial development activity, highway improvements and good retail sales.

National outlook comments ranged from "steady" to "moderate" to "leveling" to "slow" to "challenging."

Mathias' comment in the poll said: "Southwestern Illinois in Madison county has continued its excellent growth in 1969. A considerable portion of the industrial growth has been achieved through expansion of existing industries. A new industry, Chemico-Metals, is presently constructing a plant in this area, and plans to be in production by mid-1970."

at Edwardsville continues to expand and gives major impact to growth of the area.

Financing Hurts Building
"Home building has been a major stimulus to the area during the past year, but there are strong indications that this will decline in 1970. It is apparent that such decline is not due to lack of demand for homes, but rather the financing costs as well as other inflationary trends. Commercial expansion will also be minimized for the same reasons."

"Industrial employment and production will probably remain at about the same level. There are no strong indications of a major increase in this field. It is hoped that the highway construction 'freeze' presently imposed on Madison and St. Clair counties will be re-evaluated in the very near future. If this is done, it will have a favorable impact on the economy of this area during 1970."

"It is my belief that the growth rate will level off during the first part of 1970 unless concessions are made on financing."

POLICE ABOUT Police Seek

fic at any one of the sources of supply. His only requirements are a ready supply and a ready market. He deals in hundreds of thousands of tablets or capsules and sells them to traders, who stop, bars, newsstands and individuals. These "retailers" then sell the drugs to the abusers.

Users have discovered fraudulent ways of obtaining their supplies from "innocent" sources.

Forging prescription orders is a favorite method. Altering the legitimate prescription is another—the user changes the number of tablets or capsules or increases the dosage strength. Abusers will often steal prescription pads from doctors or have their own printed. Occasionally, the user will impersonate a physician and telephone a "prescription to the pharmacist."

Alert Pharmacists
Many of these attempts are foiled by alert pharmacists. Most are familiar with the signatures and prescribing habits of the doctors in their area. When something unusual comes up, they telephone the physician for verification. If there is none, pharmacists often call the police or state or federal agents.

Many drug abusers become proficient at inducing physicians to write prescriptions for them. They study medical journals and relate a lengthy medical history that calls for a stimulant, "barbiturate or narcotic. Or the abuser may tell the doctor about the wonderful relief he received from a certain drug that his former doctor prescribed."

Law officers advise that the illegal traffic in narcotics is controlled through an international underground conspiracy. Its principal product is heroin, an opiate which has no legitimate use in the U. S. and which cannot be legally used or possessed in this country.

Opium from Popples
Most heroin comes from opium made from poppies grown illicitly in Turkey, Afghanistan, Mexico and Southeast Asia. Opium grown in Turkey is smuggled through Lebanon to France or Syria where the raw product is refined into heroin for distribution all over the world. The bulk is smuggled into the U. S. and Canada.

Because of the severe restrictions in force against marijuana, most of it seen in the U. S. has been smuggled in from Mexico over a thinly patrolled border, but some is, illegally grown in the U. S.

Since LSD in crude form is relatively easy to synthesize, the illicit market in this country is supplied primarily by unscrupulous people with the ability, equipment and raw materials to manufacture the drug.

Vehicle License Data to Agencies

Early for 1970

Motor vehicle registration information on more than 725,000 vehicles registered for 1970 has been sent to law enforcement agencies throughout the state, secretary of state Paul Powell announced today.

The first microfiche cards containing the license numbers, names of owners and descriptions of the vehicles were forwarded Dec. 16, the earliest date in the history of the Secretary of State's office any information of this kind has been available to enforcement agencies.

New microfiche cards will be sent to the agencies each month for the first six months of the year, replacing the earlier lists and containing up-to-date information, including transfers and recent registrations. The second mailing will be made about Jan. 15, and should contain 1,500,000 listings.

The microfiche system of listing motor vehicle registration information was begun with the 1969 registrations, and its development during this year made possible the early distribution of this information for 1970 registrations, Mr. Powell said.

sign pointing to the ease of inflationary pressures is the money supply curve.

Reflecting the restrictive credit policies adhered to by the Federal Reserve in 1969, the nation's money supply (bank deposits and currency in circulation) in recent months has leveled off, blunting one of the most potent sources of inflationary pressures.

The staff of Babson's Reports does not foresee a renewal of the money supply in the early months of the year now underway, since the nation's leaders will still be preoccupied with price increases.

Thereafter, however, if the anticipated downturn in general business and the consequent unemployment upland become sensitive areas, the Federal Reserve may be expected to ease credit.

LABOR RULES 1970 PROSPECTS

An allusion was made earlier in this column to the influence of labor conditions upon business in 1970. Indeed, if international conditions maintain a relative status quo, what happens on the labor scene could determine 1970 business.

Many major and secondary labor contracts expire within the next twelve months. The most crucial are the labor talks involving the Teamsters and the Auto workers.

If the trucking industry is paralyzed by a nationwide strike next spring, raw materials and finished goods cannot be transported. Layoffs and curtailed workweeks in many industrial lines would then result.

To the extent that the automobile industry directly and indirectly (through a automotive equipment suppliers) employs many workers and consumes considerable amount of raw materials, a prolonged tie-up—either industrywide or in a succession of strikes against each of the "Big Three" auto producers—could be very damaging to the economy, which at that time might be either in the initial stage of a recovery or on the verge of regaining its vitality.

Whether or not labor tie-ups of varying length do occur, the outlook is for costly wage settlements.

With the profits squeeze now being experienced by most businesses, management can be expected to bargain harder in order to keep the lid on cost increases.

Thus, in 1970, labor and management will lock horns in perhaps the most determined stand on the part of both parties in many years.

Fringe benefits, with the exception of medical programs, will take a back seat to increments in take-home pay.

Management, on the other hand, may concede large pay boosts, but in exchange the tendency will be to seek one-year contracts rather than the multi-year pacts, hoping for an economic breathing spell during 1970 will take the pressure off labor demands.

1970 BUSINESS PROFILE. The latter part of 1969 saw industrial activity turn downward. Even before that development, corporate profits after taxes had already crept upward in the second quarter of 1969.

The Babson Staff anticipates a further slowdown in business in 1970.

There is no anticipation of a serious recession, although we cannot rule out such a possibility if prolonged labor tie-ups upset supply-demand ratios.

However, if there are no radical disruptions on the labor front or on the international scene, the general expectation is that business will experience a gradual slippage during the first six to nine months of 1970.

If the automobile industry can come to terms with the United Auto Workers without too much trouble, a noticeable pickup in general business could emerge in the closing months of 1970.

Gross National Product—The Babson Staff forecasts a 4% to 5% rise in the total dollar value of goods and services which will be produced in 1970 compared with 1969.

However, this is in terms of current dollar value, which will reflect the further inflationary rise in prices expected in the next twelve months.

But on a physical volume basis (adjusted for price changes), Gross National Product is not likely to show much change compared with the deflated 1969 GNP.

The components of the Gross National Product figure should be generally firm. The most important segment is personal consumption expenditures, which should continue the upward trend.

This reflects not only the increase in price structures but also the natural growth of demand from the shift in the nation's population profile, plus the higher levels of personal income and income per family.

However, the sizable increases of recent years in personal consumption expenditures will not occur in 1970.

The next important segment of the GNP is private domestic investment. Here, also, 1970 should see only a small increase over 1969.

High borrowing costs, tight credit, and the pinch on corporate profit margins are likely to dampen capital investment.

State and local spending will be one of the stronger elements of the Gross National Product in 1970. The need to fight to cure major social ills must be waged at the state and municipal levels, with help from the federal government.

Factors which should lift state and local spending include the need for more public housing, urban redevelopment, improved highways, and highway betterment to prevent traffic congestion of urban centers.

In addition, operating costs of standard municipal facilities for police protection, education, and sanitation are all up sharply.

Federal spending will be the soft spot in the GNP structure. In all probability, federal spending in 1970 will be little changed to a shade lower because of cutbacks in military spending and stretchouts in large dollar volume federal projects.

However, any savings in military outlays will be absorbed by higher expenditures in the civilian segment of the economy.

Industrial Production—As indicated in the introductory part of this section of the forecast, we currently expect the downturn in industrial production which began last September to persist through at least the next six months, with a possibility that it might extend through the summer. Industrial production is generally measured on a physical volume basis and does not reflect price changes.

At this point, the Babson's Reports staff does not foresee a deep recession. Instead, the expectation is that factory output will track a downward path in the first half, and a leveling off or the start of a revival in the third quarter, at a seasonally adjusted rate.

In the final 1970 quarter, industrial activity should show definite progress.

Overall, the Babson's Reports staff projects a possible slippage of about 5% to the low point of factory operations, with the subsequent revival narrowing the net decline for full year 1970 versus 1969 to around 3%.

Building and Construction—The building and construction field will not show much vigor until the monetary authorities shift to a less restrictive credit policy.

Thereafter, this sector of the economy should pick up momentum and end the year on a strong note.

Activity in the home-building field will start in 1970, with a smart resurgence of new construction outlays.

But unless the ease in credit continues early in 1970, new housing starts for the full year will do well to equal the number of units started in 1969.

Business Profits—To the extent that businesses are unable to lift prices and cut costs sufficiently to offset increases in labor and other operating costs, corporate profits after taxes will start to slip.

Business Loans—Because of the anticipated further slowdown in industrial activity, demand for business loans for the greater proportion of 1970 should moderate relative to 1969.

Inventory accumulation will naturally be considerably diminished, if not actually terminated, by the corrective effects of inflation upon the purchasing power of the dollar notwithstanding.

Thus, having already trimmed their sails in 1969, consumers may evidence buying interest sooner than seems justified right now.

MONEY RATES. There is little doubt that the most onerous phase of the rise in interest rates which has plagued us for the past five years has reached a crest.

Although corporate bond offerings in the closing weeks of 1969 still carried generous coupons and yields, the outlook favors some easing in money rates in 1970. Perhaps the most significant reduction will occur in the cost of short-term loans.

The cost of long-term money should also ease some, but not to any significant degree.

There simply is far too much demand for long-term capital for projects which have been postponed by the constricting credit squeeze, and for upcoming social programs.

Mortgage Rates—Mortgage borrowings are in the long-term category.

Therefore, while modest reductions in mortgage borrowing rates are very likely to occur in 1970, pent-up demand for housing (both single family units and apartments) pretty well assures brisk demand for mortgage money once interest rates start to slip.

Private Camps Study Under Way Throughout State

The Illinois Department of Conservation has begun a study of private campgrounds.

Monroe McDowell, Dixon, an administrative assistant in the department, will conduct the survey. McDowell will study the development of campgrounds and camping trends in Illinois so the conservation department can plan state park facilities more effectively. As one facet of the study, McDowell will explore trends in the manufacture of self-propelled camping units, trailers, pickup campers and tent trailers.

Dan Malkovich, assistant director of the department, said the department does not want to compete with private campgrounds.

"We hope that the study will provide us with information that we can use to aid in the development of private campgrounds," Malkovich said.

"More well planned and well operated private camping areas will mean fewer camping sites that the department will have to construct."

"We are lucky to have McDowell on our staff and available for the study," Malkovich stated. "He and his family are avid campers. He will be able to give us the viewpoint of the camper, which is something that we neglect in our planning facilities at our state parks."

Opposes Dropping School Supt. as Elective Office

A proposal by Gov. Ogilvie that a new Illinois Constitution drafted by the constitutional convention should eliminate the elective office status of the superintendent of public instruction has been attacked by Oscar A. Weil, executive director of the Illinois Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO.

"We find it very interesting," Weil said, "that because Ogilvie's proposal he failed to propose elimination of the elective office of secretary of state. This omission on the governor's part indicates either he is unaware of the relative significance of the various elective state executive offices, or that he fears taking on the potential political organization of the present Secretary of State, Paul Powell."

Weil charged that the governor has aligned himself "with a coalition composed of anti-teacher groups such as the Illinois Chamber of Commerce and the Illinois Agricultural Association, and phony liberal politicians who talk about 'taking education out of politics' simply because they think it is a popular theme."

He said that teachers "must expose this movement for what it is... the harmful effect of eliminating the elective office of superintendent of public instruction would be two-fold. We said that on the one hand it would insulate the chief executive officer of the schools from the public and the schools and teachers would rapidly become captives of the 'vast bureaucracy which we sometimes refer to as the public school establishment.'"

On the other hand, Weil said, "it would become extremely difficult to inform the public about educational matters through discussion of issues in the news media because school issues would not be dealt with in open democratic debate but in 'ivory tower' meetings of so-called expert educators."

Park Ice Rink Attendance Declines this Season

A decline in receipts at the Wilson Park ice rink was discussed by Granite City park district officials during a meeting at the park office Monday evening.

Special rink hours for the holiday tomorrow will be 1 to 3:30 p.m., 4 to 6:30 p.m., and 7 to 9:30 p.m.

It was noted that through Dec. 21, the income from the rink this year was $21,012, down $355 from the $21,367 receipts during the same period in 1968. In the first year's operation in 1967, the income during the same time period was $27,378.

The regular park board meeting set for Monday night was postponed to 7 p.m. next Tuesday because of the lack of a quorum. Commissioner Henry Gabriel, board president, was the only board member present along with Park District Supt. Harold Brown, Secretary Frank Rea and Treasurer John Klink.

In reviewing the rink financial report for those present, Supt. Brown pointed out declines in attendance and in skate rental, but said there are increases this year in rink rental for private parties, the Gateway Speed Club sessions and the Granite City Hockey Association.

In the period from the date of the rink opening in October to Dec. 21 this year, the attendance was 18,886, compared to 22,740 for the same period in 1968 and 29,222 in 1967.

A breakdown of this year's receipts shows, $2350 in fees from resident children, $482 from resident adults, $753 from $3 book tickets, $77 from $7 book tickets, $3199 from non-resident children, $1685 from non-resident adults.

State sharpening, $360; skate rentals, $2070; lockers, $263; family season passes, $1680; family night, $25; miscellaneous sales, $410; Gateway Speed Club, $570; Granite City Hockey Association, $770; private parties, $230; speed skating meet, $121; private lessons, $70, and skate rentals for the high school physical examination classes, $17. Rink concessions receipts amounted to $3279.

Supt. Brown noted that this year's added receipts for the hockey club, the speed skating club and private parties are keeping the rink income from dropping even farther, "and we're using the rink at hours it normally is not in operation."

Skating sessions for seven-hour physical education classes at Granite City high school will start next week from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Defective RR Gate To be Corrected

Police are notifying the Terminal Railroad Association of a malfunction at the crossing gate on the east side of the 22nd street crossing that was struck by a hit-run driver several weeks ago.

A complaining motorist reported Monday afternoon that when the gate on the west side of the crossing goes up, the gate on the east side stays down on occasion. The motorist uses the crossing frequently and found a solution to his problem by driving around the gate.

"I found that if I get out of my car and just tap the gate, it will respond and will go up," he added, that he does this only when the west gate has gone up.

"THANKS FOR CARING"

The expression "Who cares," is uttered many times a day on many different occasions. But, when it is used in reference to those in need, there is a positive answer. Through the annual Tree of Lights, this great community has again shown that it really cares.

Space does not permit us to name the hundreds upon hundreds of individuals who have given of themselves in so many ways to make this year's campaign successful—the individual and group contributors—the bellringers—the helping hands that were extended to lighten the load. But there is one name we will mention—Mrs. Lily Chaboude, this year's Tree of Lights Chairman, who rolled up her sleeves and became "one of us." To her and her spirit of Christian concern we shall be forever grateful.

We pray that the glow from this blest holy season shall enlighten all of our pathways and lead us closer this year to the fulfillment of "Peace on earth, goodwill toward men."⁴

May God Richly Bless You!

Homemakers' Corner

Check the Food Label

When you shop for canned beef stew, frozen chicken pie or any other processed meat or poultry product, be sure to read the label. It will help you choose the product that best suits your needs and your budget.

The label on every meat and poultry product inspected by the U.S. Department of Agriculture serves as a table of contents. It must list all ingredients, beginning with the item weighing the most and continuing to the item weighing the least.

In addition, the label of every Federally inspected meat and poultry product must include: "The net weight of the contents, not including the packaging."

—Storage or cooking instructions when necessary.

—The packer's or distributor's name and address.

—The round mark of inspection. If the product is imported, the name of the country of origin must be included on the label. All imported products must be inspected for wholesomeness.

The meat and poultry inspection program of the USDA assures you not only that products are wholesome but also that the information on their labels is truthful.

Polaroids in Winter

Flashbulbs won't flash! Shutters are slow! Polaroid shots are piled! These are just a few of the exclamations we hear about camera performance as winter weather sets in. Here are some solutions to these basic problems:

If flashbulbs won't flash, test your batteries, replace weak ones, and then keep them warm enough to generate properly.

Slow shutters may plague you in frigid weather because excess oil on working parts thickens, causing slower action and poor exposures. Again, the solution is to keep your equipment warm.

Polaroid shots may be underexposed even when the shutter is working properly because chemical action is slower than usual in cold weather. When you use your Polaroid outdoors, follow the directions that come with the film.

It may take as long as 60 seconds to develop 10-second film.

You can also put the exposed film from pack camera into a container under your topcoat so that body heat may aid development. Before you shoot pictures indoors after a trip in a cold car, let the film warm or compensate by allowing extra development time.

How to Clean House Plant Foliage

You can give house plant foliage a midwinter pick-up by careful cleaning.

Most plants can be placed in the sink and gently syringed with water at room temperature. Take care not to use excessive water pressure. If this is impractical, wipe smooth-surfaced leaves with a soft, damp cloth. You can also use a mild detergent in the water when foliage is quite dirty. Follow with a clear-water rinse.

Wipe most of the remaining water off the leaves with a damp cloth, or shake off all possible water before putting the plants aside to dry.

Particularly if the water you use is hard, your plants may have unsightly lime spots. To remove them, rinse the plant with a mixture of one tablespoon of vinegar in a quart of rainwater or melted snow to help remove the lime. Follow with a rinse of soft water without vinegar. Avoid getting the vinegar-water on the soil in the pot.

To give a touch of real glamour to your house plants, try one of the foliage waxes or leaf-glossing materials sold under a number of trade names. These preparations are usually safe. But it's always a good idea to try the one you choose on a leaf or two to see whether any damage occurs. If there is no injury in several days, feel free to use the preparation on the entire plant. But keep it off flowers, buds and newest leaves. Water plants thoroughly several hours before applying these materials. Never use them on wilted plants or those in dry soil.

Castor oil and milk are poor substances for shining plant foliage because they are poor dust catchers, may clog leaf pores and sometimes become smelly.

Foliage polishes are not recommended for plants with hairy leaves, such as African violets, gloxinias and geraniums. Brush these leaves with a soft camel's hair brush to remove dust, or rinse gently with lukewarm water.

News in Fashion Field

"Qiana" nylon, first seen last year in the high-fashion market, can now be found in a wide range of garments.

"Qiana" fabrics look and feel like the finest silk, but they can be washed and dried in standard laundry equipment. This new nylon's properties of wrinkle-resistance and ease of care appear superior to those of other man-made fibers.

The woven fabrics include satin, surah, peau de soie and taffeta. Trick knit is a novelty, and it shows excellent draping qualities.

Designers find the new nylon especially suitable for intimate apparel because it is lightweight and has excellent wicking properties. Consumers can now buy "Qiana" lingerie, loungewear, sleepwear and hostess garments.

This new fabric adds elegance to sophisticated leisure fashions for lounging and enter-

Sentenced to 60 Days for Theft

Lee Roy Fitzgerald, 34, of Fredericktown, Mo., was sentenced to 60 days at the state penal farm at Vandalia yesterday when he pleaded guilty before Magistrate Johnson to a charge of theft filed by Venice police and Terminal Railroad agents.

Venice authorities said the charge was filed after seven tires that had been stolen from an Illinois Central freight car in the Madison yards of the Terminal were found in Fitzgerald's car following an accident on McKinley bridge early yesterday morning.

Police said Fitzgerald admitted he had taken the tires from the freight car while he was working as a carman in the yards Monday night. He said he put the tires in his car, then returned to work until about 10:30 p.m. After work, he said, he went to the American Legion Post 307 home where he had several drinks, leaving there about 1 a.m. yesterday.

On way across McKinley bridge Fitzgerald lost control of his car and crashed into the west divider on the bridge span. He suffered a facial laceration. The car was extensively damaged and was ordered towed to Hays's garage in Venice, officers reported.

While Fitzgerald was being booked at Venice police headquarters on a charge of illegal transportation of liquor, a Madison police officer who was helping store the damaged car on a charge of illegal new tires in the back seat. He called Venice police and investigation disclosed five tires in the trunk. Police also found three cases of canned sausages in the car.

tailoring at home. The full, pleated culotte rates high in popularity because it is comfortable to wear and practical in design. And when made from "Qiana," the added feature of guaranteed-to-last pleats.

"Qiana" yarn costs more than regular nylon yarn, so apparel items will naturally cost more.

Launderability

To make the most of clothing dollars, don't overlook upkeep. Garments that require frequent cleaning or special care are costly to own.

Learn all you can about care and wear before buying. If you expect to wash an article, be sure the hang tag says it can be laundered.

Certain construction features, minimum-care fabrics and special finishes make washing and ironing easier and save time and energy.

Man's textiles on the market today carry a label giving fiber content, and some bear statements about shrinkage possibilities along with washing directions.

Be sure to save the hang tags and washing instructions along with the sales slip. If you follow the care recommendations and results are unsatisfactory, return the merchandise to the store. Consumers can help improve the quality of merchandise and keep advertising claims honest by informing merchants of dissatisfaction.

Here are some specific features that do not detract from quality and are laudable:

—Deep, well-finished seams with edges that do not fray easily. Generally the fewer the seams in wash-and-wear garments, the better.

—Colorfastness of all parts of a garment, including buttons, decorative stitching, binding and trim.

—Well-finished buttonholes and hems.

—Closely woven fabrics. —Little or no ironing required.

Storms, School Strike, Progress Mark 1969

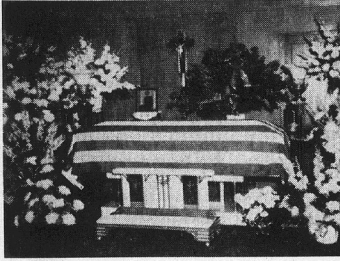

HIGH WINDS Swept Quad-City area June 28, uprooted trees, tore down power lines and damaged several buildings. This huge tree was blown across driveway onto top of parked auto in East Madison. Similar incidents occurred in several locations.

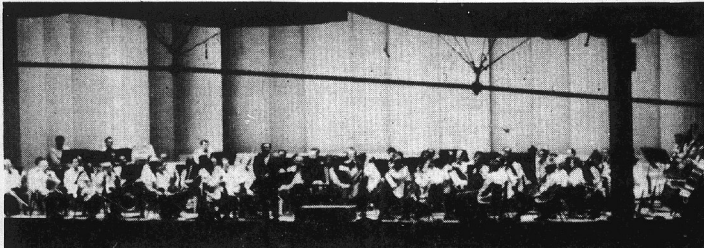

INFORMATIONAL PICKETS marched in front of Granite City schools as negotiations for a new teachers contract hit a snag in August. The impasse resulted in a strike that delayed opening schools for the fall term for three weeks.

NEW INTERSECTION of West Pontoon road and Route 3 was completed as one of the final phases in preparation for opening the new stretch of the Great River Road from north of Pontoon to Niedringhaus avenue in Granite City. Workers are prepared here to reopen Route 3 after Pontoon road had been closed for more than a month. The grade of Route 3 was raised to bring railroad tracks across Pontoon road to grade level.

FLAG-DRAPED COFFIN of Warrant Officer David E. Herschbach, 20, U. S. Army helicopter pilot killed in action March 21 in Vietnam. Funeral services were held in St. Mary's Catholic Church at Madison. Eight Quad-Cityans died in Vietnam during 1969, increasing the total number of Vietnam war deaths from this area to 28.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER Festival was initiated as annual event at the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus in June and was hailed as outstanding success. The above view was first presentation. Chancellor John Rendleman is addressing the audience at stage center. The program later became a controversial issue because of a $150,000 deficit, and was rejected approval for a second season by the SIU board of trustees. The event may be underwritten for a second year by a group of private citizens.

HEAVIEST RAINFALL in many years hit the Quad-City area in early July with a total of 5.33 inches recorded during the first seven days of month—4.32 inches of it on the night of July 6. Streets, basements and low areas were flooded. Levee district and city crews began pumping operations in Dobrey Slough and Cloverview area (shown above) to aid overtaxed sewers in draining flood area.

LONG-UGHT LEGISLATION for the development of Horseshoe Lake into a state park and conservation area was realized in 1969 with the appropriation by General Assembly of $2 millions to buy 1700-acre lake area as the starting point. Gov. Ogilvie is shown as he signed bills in a ceremony as Henry D. Kavandjoff, Granite City banker and chairman of the Illinois Horseshoe Lake Commission, explains the advantages of project.

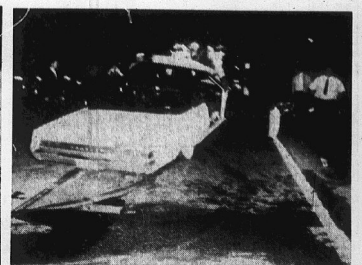

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING construction got under way during 1969 at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus in an effort to accommodate steadily mounting enrollment. This view shows progress of work in June. Project was completed in recent weeks, students are to begin moving in immediately.

AMERICAN STEEL FOUNDRIES marked its 50th anniversary of operations in Granite City in May, celebrated with an open house on the plant grounds. This is a scene of the event, attended by hundreds of members of workers families and visitors.

FAMILIAR SCENE during the year as repeated sewer breaks in underground lines plagued Granite City, requiring dozens of major excavations and costing hundreds of thousands of dollars in repairs that still threaten to bankrupt the city. This view shows Wayne avenue blocked off at St. Clair avenue. There were 22 known underground breaks at the time this photo was taken in September.

INCREASING RATIO of traffic accidents was reported throughout the year and approached near record proportions as 1969 drew near an end. This scene is one of hundreds of crashes occurring throughout area, many of which ended in death or injury—or both.

VENICE CITY OFFICIALS emphasized housing improvements during 1969, assisted in razing dilapidated structures by offering the services of street department workers and equipment. This row of six vacant, substandard houses in the 400 block of Weaver street was razed in early May. The city also proposed a Neighborhood Development program for building new houses.

Airman John Decker Assigned to Chanute

Airman John N. Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Decker of 1720 State street, has completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. A 1969 graduate of Granite City high school, he has been assigned to Chanute AFB, Ill., for training in aircraft maintenance.

Venice Wins Its 4th Freeburg Championship in 74-72 Contest

The Red Devils are champions of the Freeburg holiday cage tourney for the fourth time in five years.

In the final Tuesday, Venice slipped past Columbia 74-72 after taking a 68-58 Monday semifinal victory over Highland. Columbia's semifinal 73-70 triumph was over No. 1 seeded Odin.

Coach Bill Ohlendort attributes Venice's sweep of the tourney to the fact that "everyone played exceptionally well."

Gardner Leads Way After Highland, Venice led at all the periods, 19-13, 36-30 and 50-46. It was 56-54 before Venice in the fourth period.

Quarter scores saw Columbia lead 18-13, Venice lead 40-38 and Columbia lead 55-53, setting the stage for a 21-17 comeback by Venice in the fourth period.

Free throws enabled Columbia to add two more points to its total, but Andre Johnson and Gray also were on target with charity tosses and the Venice quintet prevailed.

Gardner paced the offense with 22 points, Gray had 21, Douglas Johnson 12, Jim Ohlendort 10, Andre Johnson seven and Coleman, two.

committee posts in Venice precinct posts 1 and 2 where Walter T. "Buck" Simmons and Jay D. "Buck" Simmons are the candidates. Both seek re-election, since both are incumbents. Simmons not only is chairman of the Madison County Democratic Central committee but also is serving as clerk of the Fifth district Appellate court by appointment, a job to which he is seeking reelection to fill a four-year unexpired term.

Mauer is city street superintendent of Venice and a confirmed organization associate.

Three-Way Race

But in Precinct 3, three candidates seek the commission seat, including Leo Glasper, the incumbent and associate of the organization. His opponents, Charles Maples and John H. Roberts, both of Eagle Park Acres, reportedly have no particular political alignments.

Andrew Watts, incumbent committeeman of Precinct 4 who is aligned with the organization, is opposed by George Wilson of 1107 Douglas street. A three-way race has developed in Precinct 5, but incumbent John H. Haynes, the organization man, is not a candidate. Running for election in the primary are James Garrett, of 410 West Second street, Don "Domie" Garrett, 402 Second street, and Harvey Haynes, 601 West Third street. Madison, Cassius Garrett reportedly is the city organization candidate in Precinct 5.

Kenneth Hinson of Third street, Madison, is unopposed in Precinct 6, but he is running in place of incumbent James H. Hinson, who was elected last April as Venice township assessor. Hinson is reported running as the organization candidate.

In Precinct 7, Hilbert C. Hoekstra, incumbent Demo committeeman, is running as the organization candidate with organization backing, opposed by William L. Gushfield, 1671 Fourth street, Madison.

Sam Chomko, incumbent committeeman of Precinct 8 in Venice township, is running on the side of the organization for many years, is not a candidate for re-election this year, but his post is being sought by candidates—Steve Graklanoff, 800 Lee street, Madison, and Constance K. Grubbs, 102 Washington avenue. One Democratic source, asked why Chomko was not in the running this year, remarked that "There have been a lot of power overtures."

Christ Costoff, an alderman on the Madison city council, is committee man of Precinct 9, is opposed by George Amisch Jr. of 1429 Seventh street, Madison. Christoff has been in the Venice-Madison political set-up and, with Simmons, helped in dispensing money to the Madison County Democratic organization, when such patronage was to be had.

Jackson L. Wofford, Rural Route One, Granite City, is bidding without opposition for the committee post of Precinct 10, while James MacRidde of Weaver street, Venice, is unopposed as committeeman of Precinct 11. Democratic politicians said Wofford has not yet been tagged as to a definite alignment, but that MacRidde is backed by the organization.

Reliable political sources said the contest in Venice precincts results from the fight between Mudge and Vadabene for the Democratic senatorial nomination in the 53rd district which encompasses the Venice-Madison area. The Venice-Madison Democratic organization is expected to back Vadabene and committeemen candidates have been labeled as Vadabene backers. Their opponents, on the other hand, are reported backed by Mudge forces.

Nameki Line-ups

In Nameki township political leaders claim the senator's race does not enter into the committee fight but is confined primarily to a test of strength between Briggs and the new township organization made up of all of the town board members, except Briggs.

The present town board, consisting of a total of three town board auditors, was elected last April in opposition to a ticket backed by Briggs. That group since has been building a political organization obviously dedicated to eliminating the Briggs faction.

Louis Whitsell, town clerk and a leader of the new town board Democratic organization, is unopposed as a candidate for precinct committeeman of Precinct 1 in Nameki township. Precinct 1 now is only one of the four of Precinct 1 in which C. Arnold Rutherford, a Briggs supporter, was committeeman, before the precinct was divided into three precincts by the county board of supervisors last summer. Other sections of old Precinct 1 became new precincts 8 and 9.

Rutherford is not seeking re-election as a committeeman this year, but Briggs, not heretofore a committeeman, has filed for the post in Precinct 1 the section in which both Briggs

March of Dimes Leaders, Poster Child Announced

Mrs. Robert (Patricia) Blankenship and Mrs. H. (Dorothy) Zevallos, the wives of two Granite City physicians, have announced the March of Dimes campaign for Granite City, Mitchell and Beach areas. It was announced this week.

In a related announcement, Madison County March of Dimes officials also report that Tammy Joyce Ruff, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ruff, 2172 Lee avenue, has been selected as 1970 Poster Child for Madison county.

The tiny girl symbolizes all children born with birth defects who are threatened by the annual fund-raising drive.

Preliminary events in the 1970 campaign will get under way in Granite City with the week-long bowling tournament, starting Jan. 18, the co-chairmen said. The competition for league bowlers will be held at local bowling lanes, will be organized and directed by Mrs. Mary Ann Alford and Mrs. Ann Burton.

The traditional Mothers' March when volunteers call on neighbors in a door-to-door solicitation of funds is scheduled on Sunday, Feb. 1. Volunteers for the March currently are being recruited by Mrs. Carlita Fox, who was appointed project chairman.

Other appointments announced by Mrs. Blankenship and Mrs. Zevallos, include Mrs. Billie Schuler and Mrs. Toby and Rutherford live. Briggs, however, is opposed in Precinct 8 by Albert E. Bell, an association of the town board faction.

Precinct 2 Contest

A two-way race is being waged in Nameki Precinct 2 (East Madison) between Robert L. Soles, incumbent committeeman, and Charles P. Sutton, who is aligned with the town board.

Roger Delour, assistant Nameki township supervisor and incumbent Democratic committeeman of Precinct 3, has filed for re-election but is opposed by two candidates—Joseph Garcia, 1412 West 10th street, Madison, and Britton K. Knight, who is identified as making an independent bid for election.

Homer Boothman, incumbent committeeman of Precinct 4 and a Briggs associate, is unopposed in the contest in Precinct 4, but another three-way contest has developed in Precinct 5, which is the incumbent Donald E. Cramer, did not seek re-election.

Ira Dean Harrell is the town board candidate for Precinct 5 in Madison and he is opposed by Lono V. Smith Jr. and James L. Brown. Both political associations could not be immediately identified.

In Precinct 6, however, Robert Beedle, a member of the town board of auditors, is unopposed in his bid for re-election.

Frank Mehelec, incumbent committeeman of Precinct 7 and a Briggs associate, seeks re-election but is opposed by Eugene S. Gargac whose candidacy is backed by the town board organization. There is no opposition to Melvin E. Barron, a town board candidate, for the committeeman post in Precinct 8, which is the town board and Quiet Valley area and part of old Precinct 1.

Races in New Precincts

Two candidates are competing for the committee post in Precinct 10 which also was created last summer when old Precinct 2 was split into Precinct 10. Seeking election there are Robert McAllister, aligned with Briggs, and David L. Hunka, backed by the town board.

Precinct 11 which is part of old Precinct 3 which also was divided last summer, also has a two-way contest with Harold C. Miller seeking the job with town board backing. His opponent is Robert Johnson, who thus far has been identified as independent.

In Chouteau township a three-way race for the Democratic committee post in Precinct 2 was split into Precinct 2 and Precinct 4 has developed. In Precinct 1, James Estes, incumbent committeeman and a candidate for sheriff in the primary next year, is a candidate for re-election without opposition, while Precinct 12, Joseph E. Grapes, incumbent committeeman of Precinct 3, is not a candidate for re-election.

The contest in Precinct 3 of Chouteau township is between Albert Decker, the incumbent, and Mildred B. Ogile and Cletus L. Bedwell, who is a member of the town board of auditors. The contest is being called a "grudge" battle and involves no major political issues.

The committee post in Precinct 4 of Chouteau township is sought by Jerry C. Turner and Joseph D. Stefanoff, George "Hot" Gibson, and a number of others. Precinct committees are elected in the primary balloting, rather than nominated as in the case of the Madison state, district and local ballots.
